

I do not want the law to change. I appreciate being able to spend valuable time with my family without telemarketing interruptions. It's tuff enough trying to raise a family with values, let alone being bothered every day with stupid telephone calls. Please leave things as they are. Thank You